

Mój staż w Portugalii

Maksymilian Niziński

Welcome

In this presentation I'm going to show what would I do if I go to the foreign practices and why I should go there, also a mite of my history .

How this all started

My love for cooking started when i was very young. My mom always told my that I saw a cooking competition on tv and I was so excited i couldn't stay in place and they had to turn off the show.

First steps

I mentioned that since a very young age my passion was cooking. I used to help my mom and grandma in the kitchen when they were making lunch, which was almost always cleaning the dishes. :)

My first dish

It wasn't anything big and I don't remember it but my mom do, and she says it was a cheese in breadcrumbs, she helped me prepare it but i was so proud as if i had prepared it all by myself.

Cooking as an art

Cooking was for me much better than just preparing a dish and eating it, for me it was more like an art. The fact that you can make something out of nothing is for me fascinating.

My dream

As long as I can remember
I always wished to cook
every traditional dish from every country in the world, I know it is kinda unthinkable but we can always dream.

What was next?

Years go by and my passion didn't burn out so I made a decision to go to culinary school, so I can learn how to become a better cook, and get closer to my goals.

During the years

When I was in school I found more people that have different visions but share my passion, so we became very close friends and I'm very glad we did.

What now

The school made me much better in cooking, but I still got a lot learn and I'm still chasing my dreams so one day I can say to my younger self ,we made it''.

Why I should go

I think Portugal would be a perfect place for me to have an advance in cooking, learning new dishes, and also visit a beautiful place.

What fascinates me

People in Portugal have a hundred ways to prepare a codfish. What is really impressive to me and I really want to try, maybe not all of them but most of them for sure.

What i would visit

In free time i really like to walk around town and look at the life and nature that is all around us. I find out that it really give me joy and relax me. So I would definitely visit murals and graffiti because I really like them.

New people

I really like meeting new people, and if i go there i would meet so many interesting new people with different interest and skills, and i believe they could teach me so many new things, what would be so exciting.

Thank you
